St Andrews is a historic town situated on the East coast of Scotland with stunning views of the North Sea. Its beautiful beaches stretch along the coast providing scenic walks and outdoor activities such as water sports, fishing, and golfing. Known as the Home of Golf, it is steeped in history. With its proximity to major cities like Dundee and Edinburgh, as well as the spectacular Fife countryside, St Andrews is an ideal base for exploring and experiencing Scotland.

The meeting and event spaces at the Old Course Hotel provide a professional and picturesque setting for any event, with a range of flexible rooms, modern facilities, and a dedicated events team to assist with planning and coordination of any event.
